

SMARTPOLIS Workshop

Smart Cities in Central and Eastern Europe

03 May 2017

Objective

To strengthen co-operation among interested parties in the CEE region and to establish the Smart Cities Forum for the CEE countries

Chairman

Péter Bakonyi, Smartpolis project coordinator

Venue

Budapest University of Technology and Economics
1111 Budapest, 18. Egry József street, V1. Building
'C' Wing Neumann Room

Organized by

Budapest University of Technology and Economics

Program

- 10.00 Opening of the workshop
Prof. László Jakab Dean of the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Informatics
- 10.10 Short presentation of the progress of the Horizon 2020 Smartpolis teaming project
Péter Bakonyi Ph.D Smartpolis project coordinator

- 10.25 Keynote address
Prof. Dr. Lutz Heuser Urban Institute - Germany

Short summary of the smart city activities of the participants, focusing on the main priorities and the expected market situation of their country-institutions (15 minutes)

- 10.45 Prof. Aurel Gontean Politehnica University of Timisoara
Eduard Dumitrascu Romanian Smart City Association
Mgr. Dávid Bártra CityOne Czech Republic – Brno
Zuzana Nehajova EY Czech Republic – Prague
Nebojša Gvozdenović University of Novy Sad
- 12.00 Sándor Nagy Deputy Mayor of the City of Szeged
Zoltán Póser CEO EDC Debrecen
Michael Frank Hungarian Telekom

- 13.00 Networking lunch

- 14.00 Participant presentations
Bálint Dömölki Ph.D IT Star EU
Dr. Tamás Mihálydeák University of Debrecen
Zita Buday RCISD

- 15.00 Prof. Gyula Sallai BME
Information about the Smart City Conference and Exhibition at BME in November
Kálmán Kovács Ph.D Chairman of the Hungarian Smart City Forum
Information on the Hungarian Smart City Forum

- 15.30 Discussion on the on the establishment of the Smart City Forum in the CEE countries.
Decision on the establishment of the Smart City Forum in the CEE countries
Discussion about future activities

- 16.20 Summary – closing
Kálmán Kovács Director of BME EIT